ANOTHER RICHMOND IN THE FIELD

Senator Cummins of Iowa Announces Candidates for Republican Presidential Nomination.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Jan. 20.—Senator Albert B. Cummins of Iowa, a progressive republican leader, today announced his candidacy for the presidential nomination, saying that if the Iowa republicans believe him a fit man to urge before the Chicago convention he will accept their decision.

TAFT MISSED YALE CHAPEL EXERCISES

Fire in Old Dormitory of His Alma Mater Detained Him Till the Final Invocation.

[By Associated Press.]
New Haven, Conn., Jan. 20.—President Taft, who is here today to attend a meeting of the Yale corporation, was out at the time of the chapel exercises this morning to watch the fire in the old south middle dormitory of Yale.
Mr. Taft arrived in the chapel finally just as President Hadley was finishing the invocation.

ASTONISHING IMPROVE- MENT AT DALLAS

Ninety Per Cent of Meningitis Patients in Hospital Expected to Recover.
Many Now Ready to Be Discharged.

[By Associated Press.]
Dallas, Texas, Jan. 20.—An astonishing decrease in the percentage of fatalities from meningitis here is announced by Dr. Sophian today. He said: "We have fifty-eight cases in the city hospital, and of these I believe 90 per cent will recover. There are perhaps fifteen or twenty of them now who practically are ready to go to their homes. We are working on an immunization process, which if successful may prove a permanent safeguard against catching meningitis."

Ninth Case at Houston.

[By Associated Press.]
Houston, Texas, Jan. 20.—The ninth case of meningitis developed here last night. The patient is a negro.

Eight New Cases and Two Deaths.

[By Associated Press.]
Dallas, Texas, Jan. 20.—The meningitis report today is eight new cases and two deaths.

Dr. Sophian Says Under Control.

[By Associated Press.]
Dallas, Texas, Jan. 20.—Dr. Sophian announced today that the outbreak of meningitis in this city is practically under control and that he will return to New York shortly.

MENINGITIS CASE NEAR BRYAN

The Eagle was informed this afternoon by Mayor J. T. Maloney that Dr.
W. H. Oliver, county health officer, had officially reported to him a case of meningitis near Bryan. The case is the nine-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs.
Bob Henry, residing on the Sandy Point road two and a half miles west of Bryan.

A strict quarantine on the premises will be maintained, and everything possible will be done to prevent a further spread of the disease.

PEOPLE NEEDLESSLY EXCITED

Registrar of Vital Statistics Says No Cause for Alarm—Meningitis Not Much Worse Than It Usually Is.

[By Associated Press.]
Austin, Texas, Jan. 20.—R. P. Babcock, registrar of vital statistics, today gave out a statement saying that the meningitis situation is not alarming and people are doing themselves great injustice by thus needlessly exciting themselves. Statistics show the continued existence of this disease for years past. The mortality report of 1910 shows deaths from meningitis numbered 134. For eleven months of 1911, not including December, the mortality from the disease was only 261.

Czech Leader to Lecture in America.

London, Jan. 20.—Count Lutzow, who is the head of a leading family of the Bohemian nobility and a writer of considerable note, sailed for the United States today to deliver a series of lectures on the history of the Czechs.
He will fill engagements at Harvard, Yale, Princeton and other leading universities and will also be heard in a number of the principal cities. The Countess Lutzow, who is well known in London society, accompanies her husband to America.

HEARING IN SNEED-BOYCE MURDER CASE POSTPONED

Cone Johnson Joins Attorneys for Defense—Judge Will Fine Anyone Who Brings Concealed Weapons Into Court.

[By Associated Press.]
Fort Worth, Texas, Jan. 20.—By agreement of counsel the hearing of the J. B. Sneed habeas corpus hearing has been postponed until Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Cone Johnson, who joined the attorneys for the defense today, announced that the defense was not ready and requested a postponement before the opening of court.

Judge Simmons announced that while he did not believe anyone would come into the courtroom armed, he wished to say that anyone found carrying concealed weapons would be fined.
In the courtroom at the time were Will, Henry and Lynn Boyce, sons of the slain man.

Tom Snyder, father of Mrs. Sneed, has arrived from New Mexico and was present at the hearing.

KILLED ON SICK MOTHER'S PORCH

Quarantine Guard Shot to Death Stockman Who Persisted in Going to See Sick Mother.

[By Associated Press.]
Austin, Texas, Jan. 20.—George Lock, a stockman, is reported to have been killed at Buda, Hayes county, because he persisted in going to see his sick mother when warned not to enter the town on account of quarantine. He was killed on his mother's porch.

YOUNG TRIAL DRAW- ING TO CLOSE

[By Associated Press.]
Galveston, Texas, Jan. 20.—The government rested today in the prosecution of E. H. Young for the alleged misapplication of $65,000 of the Galveston National Bank's funds. The defense moved to strike out all testimony and to direct an acquittal. This was overruled. It is expected that the defense will rest and the arguments will begin this afternoon.

SENATOR LA FOLLETTE TO INVADE THE EAST

New York, Jan. 20.—Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin is to bring his presidential boom to New York next week. The apostle of progressive republicanism will come to town backed by an organization known as the "Insurgents' Club." With him when he makes his debut on the stage of Carnegie Hall next Monday evening will be Gifford Pinchot, the erstwhile closest friend of Theodore Roosevelt.
Others who have taken a prominent part in the bringing of Mr. La Follette to the metropolis are F. C. Howe, president of the Insurgents' Club, and Norman Hapgood, its first vice president.

Taft Addresses Lawyers.

New York, Jan. 20.—President Taft is expected to be the guest of honor at the annual banquet of the New York State Bar Association here tonight.

PANAMA CANAL WILL NOT HURT SUEZ CANAL

The Monopoly of Asiatic Commerce by Latter Will Not Be Affected.
Government to Prosecute Harvester Trust.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Jan. 20.—The senate was not in session today.
In the house Commissioner of Navigation Chamberlain told the interstate commerce committee that the Panama canal would not affect the Suez canal's monopoly of Asiatic commerce.
Attorney General Wickersham assured the house rules committee that the government is preparing to act against the International Harvester Company.

ANOTHER WELCOME FOR CARDINAL FARLEY

New York, Jan. 20.—New York Catholics have engaged the mammoth Hippodrome for a public reception to Cardinal Farley tomorrow night. It is feared that the big edifice will not hold more than a small part of the thousands who will desire to greet the new prince of the church. Senator O'Gorman will preside at the meeting and a number of distinguished Catholic laymen will speak.

COTTON SHIPPERS HAVE WHIP HAND

Interstate Commerce Commission Gives Them Control of Bills of Lading Business.

[By Associated Press.]
Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 20.—The Southern cotton shippers believe themselves to be in practical control of the situation with reference to the Liverpool bills of lading plan, which was the subject of a conference here today between prominent cotton men and European representatives. The shippers believe the interstate commerce commission's decision forbidding railroads giving information concerning bills of lading without the shipper's permission gives them control of the situation.
